

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

Student Learning Outcomes for the B.A. in Ethnic Studies

Students completing the B.A. major will be able to:

1. study how race intersects with gender, class, and sexuality in comparative perspective in order to gain deeper insight and understanding as to the relations of social power that compose multiple complex histories
2. critically examine inter- and intra-group differences and commonalities in history, culture, racism, impact of law, and social inequalities in contemporary society
3. analyze conflicts, tensions, and building of effective inter-group coalitions and alliances among racially subordinated groups
4. prepare students to function effectively and critically as informed persons in a diverse society
5. comprehensively describe and analyze the history, function, and ongoing effects of racism in the United States
